

One morning, not too long ago, I slept in to 7 o'clock!
My frazzled mother woke me up, my door went 'knock, knock, knock.'

I jumped up and threw on some clothes, 8 o'clock on the dot.
I missed the bus, oh what a fuss, hopped on my bike, tick tock.

I got to school at 9 o'clock, just as I heard the bell chime,
Got to my seat in just one beat, I made it right on time.

Reading stories on the rug, and pattern blocks til noon.
12 oclock, its time for lunch, get out your forks and spoons!

When 3 o'clock came, we were working on maths, and adding the number 3,

The bell rang and up we sprang, its time to play, yippee!

My friend and I played football til 6 o'clock on the street.

That was fun, its time to run- its dinnertime, lets eat!

With PJs on, I brushed my teeth, its 9 o'clock you say?
Well like mum said, its time for bed, tomorrow's a brand new day!
